MAY FLOWERS BRING A ROLLICKING ROMP TO LIFE AT THE BCC!

Our 104th Season concludes with The Cottage by Sandy Rustin. It's a hilarious tale, where true meanings of fate, identity and marriage are called into question as a surprising, hilarious web of secrets unravels in this ridiculous-- potentially murderous--romantic comedy.

Alex Lucchesi is back in the director's seat, having been at the helm of the successful comedy Don't Dress for Dinner earlier this year. Alex has assembled a stellar cast that includes Sandy Basile, June Christine Farlin, Charlie McDougal, Glen Porter, Frank Scanzillo and Lizzy Smythe. The stage manager is Sue Boberg.

The show opens on Thursday, May 7 and continues for 3 weekends through May 24 on Friday and Saturday evenings at 7:30 p.m. with Sunday matinee performances at 2:30 p.m. General admission tickets are $30 / $28 for seniors 65+ and students. Group sale discounts are available for parties of 10 or more. Tickets and more information are available online at www.barnstablecomedyclub.org or by calling the box office at 508-362-6333.

From the playwright that took CLUE from screen to stage, The Cottage is an outrageously roaring 20's romp that will have you laughing from start to finish. Set in an English country cottage, a woman decides to expose her latest affair to both her husband—and her lover's wife. As secrets unravel and passions collide, the meaning of love, identity, and marriage are all thrown into question, and served in a way only the British can serve it: with tea. With shocking plot twists, scandalous reveals, and razor-sharp humor, The Cottage is a deliciously funny hit comedy where no one's secrets are safe.
